

National Grid donates to SCCC's Emergency COVID-19 Fund

National Grid has made a generous $10,000 gift to Suffolk County Community College's COVID-19 Emergency Fund. The fund provides critical financial assistance to students at Suffolk County Community College whose lives have been impacted by the coronavirus pandemic and has supported more than 550 students to date.

"National Grid came to the aid of our students when it was most needed" said Suffolk County Community College Interim President Louis Petrizzo. "On behalf of our students, and all of us at Suffolk, we extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks."

From left, National Grid's Belinda Pagdanganan who is also a Suffolk County Community College Trustee and a member of the Board of Directors of the Suffolk Community College Foundation; Sylvia Diaz, Sylvia A. Diaz, PhD, LMSW, the Foundation's executive director and Keith Rooney, National Grid's Director of Customer and Community Management for Downstate, New York Photo from SCCC

