

File photo

Suffolk County Community College's 34th Annual Golf Classic will be held at Hamlet Golf and Country Club in Commack.

SCCC hosts annual golf classic for scholarships

Successful businessman Michael J. Grant Jr. and Suffolk County Community College's Athletic Director Kevin Foley will be honored by the Suffolk Community College Foundation at its 34th Annual Golf Classic.

"This year's honorees are committed to making a difference in our students' lives," said SCCC President Shaun McKay. "Both Kevin and Michael have continuously demonstrated their commitment to our college, its students and the community at large. We thank them both for helping the college's foundation and our students."

The foundation's golf classic will be played Aug. 21 at the Hamlet Golf and Country Club in Commack. Registration includes 18 holes of golf, access to the driving range and putting green, a golf cart, lunch, a cocktail reception and awards dinner.

Golfers scoring a hole in one on the 17th hole can drive off in a new Maserati Ghibli, and a raffle will be done for a chance to experience a Maserati weekend.

The proceeds from the golf classic support need and merit-based scholarships, emergency student loans and quality academic enrichment programs for SCCC students.

"We are delighted to honor Kevin Foley and Michael J. Grant," said Sylvia Diaz, executive director of the Suffolk Community College Foundation. "Both men inspire our students to reach higher, study harder and achieve their academic and professional goals."

To register for the golf classic, visit the foundation's website at www.sunysuffolk.edu/golf. Call the Suffolk Community College Foundation office at 631-451-4458 or email Golf@sunysuffolk.edu, with any questions.

